SPEEDY AUTO RUNS DOWN MRS. GIESECKE

Mrs. Ernest Giesecke, the wife of a piano-tuner working for the Thayer Piano Co., was yesterday knocked down by an auto driven by Gus Schuman. Her left arm was broken and she also received internal injuries. The accident took place near Vida Villa on King street, where the injured lady resides, at about 2 p. m.

T. C. McGuire, who was an eye-witness, says that the woman was coming across the street from the Vida Villa to the Rapid Transit station to take a car. When about the middle of the street she seemed to become aware of the approach of the automobile which at this time was going at a good rate of speed, for she quickened her steps. She stopped about two feet from the Rapid Transit track at the station to await the coming of the car and seemed to pay no more attention to the automobile, as she had given it the whole width of the street. The automobile approaching, instead of keeping along the macadamized portion of the street turned so far to the right as to bring the right-hand wheels between the rails of the track, and struck the woman as she stood waiting for her car. The impact was so severe as to carry her some distance, thirty feet McGuire thinks.

Schuman is quoted as follows: "I was on my way out King street and saw the lady start to cross the street. I turned the machine so as to pass behind her and she stopped. I then turned the machine to pass in front of her and she started to run across in front of the auto. I tried to stop, but it was too late. The machine struck her and carried her a little ways. As soon as the auto stopped I got out and went to her assistance. She asked me if her arm was broken and on the way in to the hospital she talked to me. She did not appear to be badly hurt. She was not unconscious. I told Dr. Hodgins to take care of her. I did the best I could to avoid the accident. My machine was not running over twelve miles an hour. There were five people in the car at the time of the accident—two ladies and two gentlemen besides myself."

EVANGELICAL GLEE CLUBS WILL COMPETE

The annual convention of the Hawaiian evangelical societies will take place in the Hall Church at Hilo June 24th. The Kauai delegation arrived Sunday and sailed for Hilo in the Mauna Kea this noon. In the delegation there are a number of good singers. The Maui delegation contains a number of teachers, who are prepared to sing at a public concert to be given at Hilo. David Kapohakimohewa, a school teacher and a well-known Hawaiian musician, the composer of Prince Kalaniana'ole's campaign song, has a well-trained glee club the members of which are evangelists. The Hawaii delegation has been preparing for this concert for some time. Mrs. Charles Siemon, formerly Miss Helen Desha, is the musical director. From Molokai will come a special glee club, under the leadership of Matthew Kane Hoonani, principal of the Government school at Halawa. He is assisted by the Hon. Joe Nakaleka. With them at the head of the Molokai delegation it is expected that a lively musical competition will take place at Hilo. The Kauai delegation is headed by Judge D. Kapahee and Judge Wm. Werner.

Following are the delegates from Kauai: Hanalei—Wm. Werner, Rev. D. P. Mahihila, S. W. Kauano, Rev. J. K. Loti, W. K. Samuela. Koolau—Mrs. S. W. Meheula, Mrs. Pauole, Rev. R. Puiki. Kapaa—Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Haee, Miss A. Haee. Lihue—Hon. W. H. Rice, Sr., Rev. J. M. Lydgate, Rev. S. K. Kaulili, J. H. K. Kauli, Mrs. H. K. Kabele, Mrs. T. Ellis. Koloa—D. Kapahee, Hanapepe—Mrs. T. Onokea, Mrs. F. Sabo, Waimea—Rev. J. A. Akina, J. K. Kapuni, Mrs. L. Akina, Mrs. Hannah Cooke.

The Oahu delegation, it is said, has no singing organization, but those who will go will try to form a club during the trip up.

EXCURSION SUCCESS

Excursionists who made the Volcano trip this time in the Mauna Kea report the whole affair a grand success. The crater of Kilauea was never seen to better advantage; it is very active, and acres are on fire. The arrangements made by the steamship company were satisfactory, and, though the ship was crowded, the trip was enjoyable all through.
